A Slight Epidemic...: The Government Cover-Up of Bubonic Plague in a Major American City Frank Feldinger

When government officials have to deal with major public health dangers, they often take excessive--even totalitarian--measures. The results of their efforts can be more damaging than any disease. This book takes the first detailed look at the hushed-up story of the L.A. bubonic plague outbreak. It's a story that's been covered up for more than 70 years.
