An invaluable guide to the Sydney area. Journalist Simon Webster has compiled the best daytrips from his weekly SUN HERALD column and added many new ones to give you a great choice of days out in the Sydney area. Ranging from the quirky, such as Janet's Royalty Room where you can be amazed at the vast collection of Royal memorabilia, to the classic - the beautiful Vaucluse House; from places of multicultural interest, like Cabramatta Gourmet Safari to the thrills of the 'Shark Feed Extreme', no stone is left unturned in the quest to bring you the most interesting, unusual and fun days out possible. Includes trips for rainy days and kids', plus multicultural, active, free, transport-related, iconic Australian, historic, wet and wild places to go for the perfect day out. And if you want to do some more activities in the area while you are there each day trip lists five or six other places to visit or things to do in the area, as well as a brief history of the area you are visiting. An invaluable guide to the Sydney area.
