Passage Caroline Overington

A captivating short story of one man's journey into a cult and out the other side by bestselling author, Caroline Overington...

Paul Bannerman is the newly elected deputy premier of Victoria, and he has a story to tell.

For politics hasn't always been his life. Thirty years ago he was a young university student without a sense of purpose or any real ambition.

Until a chance meeting one morning with the infamous Brother Ruhamah gives him the direction he seeks - straight into the cult of the Jesus People...
