Ghost Sonata Gary Reed

A young man is born with a rare gift, the ability to sense the feelings and thoughts of others. He is what is called a "Sunday Child". He can almost tap into the minds of others and judge their emotions, their fears, and their doubts. But it is not a power that he can control...it just washes over him. This is a tale of that young man plunged into a family of despair and secrets from years gone by within an old house. He becomes an unwillingly participant in the poisonous lies and deceit that have invaded the house. But then he falls in love with one of the occupants. Now he too, becomes part of the legacy of torment that plagues the house. The Comics Review calls author Gary Reed "One of the most underrated comic writers around.". Collects issues 1-4.
