What would you give to save the thing you love the most?

It has been twenty years since Lucie Bowen left the islands. Twenty years ago, the May Day Quake set loose catastrophic waves along the west coast, from Alaska to California, shattering thousands of lives. Twenty years ago, Lucie's father disappeared in an explosion at the Marrow Island oil refinery, a tragedy that destroyed the island's ecosystem and sent Lucie and her mother to the mainland to start anew. Twenty years ago, Lucie and her best friend, Katie, were just Puget Sound children, tucked up under their desks, hovering under mylar sheets, hoping to survive.

Now, Katie writes with strange and miraculous news. Marrow Island is no longer uninhabitable, no longer abandoned. She is part of a community, a mysterious Colony, that has, somehow, conjured life again from Marrow's soil. Lucie returns. Her journalist instincts tell her there's more to the Colony and their charismatic leader—a former nun with an all-consuming plan—than its members want her to know. The island's astonishing rebirth seems to have come at great cost—perhaps to the colonists themselves. As she uncovers their secrets, will Lucie endanger more than their mission? What price will she pay for the truth?

I was always a part of you, and you were always a part of me, Katie writes. And in this marvelously spun story Alexis Smith reaches into the depths of our connections to our pasts, our loved ones, our devotions. Our choices may bring us to the brink, but within our promises to each other and our hopes for the future, at the intersection of science and faith and grace, there may well be miracles in the making.

From reader reviews:

Paul Kline:

In this 21st century, people become competitive in every single way. By being competitive right now, people have to do something to make these people survive, being in the middle of often the crowded place and notice by surrounding. One thing that oftentimes many people have underestimated the idea for a while is reading. Yes, by reading a publication your ability to survive increases then having a chance to stand out than others is high. For you who want to start reading some sort of book, we give you this kind of Marrow Island book as a beginning and daily reading guide. Why, because this book is more than just a book.

James Alvarez:

Reading a resume tends to be a new life style with this era of globalization. With reading through you can get a lot of information that can give you benefit in your life. Having a book everyone in this world can share their idea. Books can also inspire a lot of people. Plenty of authors can inspire their very own reader with their story as well as their experience. Not only the storyplot that is shared in the books. But also they write about the data about something that you need an illustration. How to get the good score on toefl, or how to teach your children, there are many kinds of books that exist now. The authors nowadays always try to improve their talent in writing, they also do some analysis before they write the book. One of them is this Marrow Island.

Stacey Ryan:

Are you kind of a hectic person, only have 10 or even 15 minutes in your time to upgrade your mind expertise or thinking skill perhaps analytical thinking? Then you have a problem with the book when compared with can satisfy your short time to read it because this all time you only find e-book that need more time to be studied. Marrow Island can be your answer mainly because it can be read by a person who has those short free time problems.

Ellen Scherer:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to read. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make a summary for some resume, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart or real their leisure activity. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this Marrow Island can make you feel more interested to read.
