The American Dream of Tomato baseball club

Description

These stories, that read together could look like a treaty on the game of baseball, will bring you inside the fascinating world of the hit and run. The narration is about true events of fifteen boys who, from an underground parking in downtown Sanremo late seventies, just eleven year old, began to learn the secrets of this art. Two great masters will accompany the 15 little unwitting baseball heroes during this interior growth, conveying to each one their unique and unrepeatabe vision of the game, but also of life. Some of them will go on to play in the Italian National Team, one will participate to the Barcellona Olympic Games wearing the National Team uniform 43 times. Two generations later, that same club will form Alex Liddi, the first Italian in history to play in the Major League of Baseball! A sport that gives the chance, to whom is fortunate to learn the secrets and more genuine philosophy, to change forever the relation with reality. This is baseball...
