La "vía chilena" al socialismo (1970-1973): Un itinerario geohistórico de la Unidad Popular en el sistema-mundo (Spanish Edition) Luis Garrido Soto

¿Es posible imaginar un nuevo análisis histórico sobre la crisis y caída del gobierno de la Unidad Popular? En principio, parece difícil integrar otra explicación adicional a uno de los temas más trabajados de la historia reciente chilena y de la Guerra Fría latinoamericana. Sin embargo, el trabajo de investigación de Luis Garrido adopta un punto de vista original y desafiante, al integrar el marco teórico sistémico del sociólogo e historiador norteamericano Immanuel Wallerstein al análisis de la crisis institucional de 1973. En tal sentido, el autor nos invita a comprender el fin de la experiencia socialista chilena a la luz de a la larga duración, heredera de las tesis de Fernand Braudel, y en el marco de los ciclos económicos mundiales (sistema-mundo).
