They sometimes have to drive for hours. Sometimes, they have to brave extreme conditions like blizzards and icy roads. Who are these people? THEY are Wave Chasers. Keeping a watchful eye on weather conditions they wait. They wait for just the right conditions. When the conditions are right they must go. The destination may be near or it may be far. They may have to cancel meetings. They don't mind because they are in search of the prize, waves. No, they are not from California or Florida, they are chasing waves on Lake Michigan. These are their pictures (black & white) and stories
