A Thin Line Between Me and My Thug Tina J.

Paige just wanted to stay at home and celebrate finalizing her divorce. However, her best friend Hope had other plans for her; which included a night out on the town. Paige contemplated on the idea and gave in. The party was packed with what Paige would call young thugs or hustlers. She vowed never to date anyone under the age of 30. She felt as though young men couldn't handle her and would cause too many headaches. That is until she met Hakim. He was seven years younger than her; but the effect he had on Paige was something she never experienced. Will these two be able to weather the storm or will pieces from his past destroy a future for them?
