Endorsed by evangelicals such as Steven J. Lawson, Thomas J. Nettles, Joel R. Beeke, John M. Frame, Justin Peters, and others, this is the record of the author's journey from an outspoken Arminian to a deeply devoted expositor of the biblical and historical Doctrines of Sovereign Grace. Several years in the making, this 360-page book is unique from others for two reasons: it is from a former passionate Arminian who knows those arguments well, and it treats these doctrines in an expositional manner instead of the usual topical fashion. After laying the all important foundation of how we should approach these doctrines, it then expounds the classic passages of Scripture that present them. A very special chapter, "The Test of History (Jude 3)," carefully traces the history of both Arminianism and Calvinism, demonstrating the consequences of both and the historical orthodoxy of the latter.
